LEGEND

F = FAITH
B = BELIEVE
T = TRUST

These 2 words are used 196 times in the New Testament. Trust is used twice.
Saved people are usually simply described as those who "believe" or have "faith."
This is the most common way to indicate the one who has trusted in the death of Jesus Christ as complete payment for sin.

Note carefully. God's favorite words are not "white as snow" or "let Jesus into your heart" or "receive Him" or "pray this prayer." Most of the Bible is written on a 6th grade level. He expects children can understand most of the sentences. Kids can easily comprehend, "I am believing Jesus died for my sin and He promised me eternal life if I believe. I cannot be saved by my good works."
Keep it simple.
