

KIDS ARE LOST ! They really are. He came to save even “these little ones who believe in Me. . . .and He took them up in His arms.”
Mark 4.42 & 10.16

Almost any school aged child, and some even younger, realizes he isn't always the kind of kid he should be. In other words, he knows he is a sinner. He may also know that Jesus is the Savior without knowing that eternal life is free. If this doesn't sound right to your ears, I challenge you to go a park to ask 25 kids what they think they have to do to get to heaven. I'm sure the most common answer you'll get is something similar to, “Be good.”

You and I need a Savior, too. When I was just 5 years old, my father explained that when Jesus died, He paid for all my sin.

At the age of 5 I was sure that I had done many bad things and at that moment I realized it would be impossible for me to go to heaven. I trusted Jesus as the One who had paid for all the things I had done wrong.

I had eternal life.

You've never met an innocent kid in your life.
