

I heard the Father say, "Go teach!"
And marveled at His call.
"I cannot teach others," said I
"for I am least of all."

"Though you are least," the Father said,
"Yet I have need of thee."
"Where you are weak, I am full strong,
"You can do all through Me."

Since I have yielded to His call
When e're His help I've sought,
His Spirit fills my every need,
In teaching, I am taught.
