FIVE-POINT SELF-EVALUATION

MY AIM

- Did I have a teaching aim clearly in mind? Y N
Did I make it clear to my students? Y N
Did I give them a chance to put the aim into their own words? Y N

HOW DID I START?

- Did I start on time? Y N
Did the opening catch the attention of everyone, and was it true to the teaching aim? Y N

MY MAIN POINTS

- Could they understand each point I made? Y N
Did I try to cover too much ground? Y N
Did I spend too much [or too little] time on each point? Y N

COULD THEY ALL APPLY THE LESSON?

- Could each person understand how the Scripture we discussed applied to him personally?
How many do I expect will apply the lesson this week? most some none
Could any of them be thinking that it only applied to somebody else in my class? Y N

MY FINISH

- Did I finish on time? Y N
Did I just keep talking after I had finished? Y N
Did I cover everything that I had to? Y N
Would they have enjoyed a longer session? Y N
Did my last few minutes leave them with a real challenge? Y N
Do I believe that everyone will want to come back next week because the class is valuable?
Y N

IF I WERE A STUDENT IN MY CLASS, WOULD I COME BACK NEXT WEEK?
